Original from Joel's Notes

"During this month (April), many students have visited Hawaii for instruction and meditation. The words of a meditation are being fulfilled:

Your home is the House of God wherein He dwells;

It is a refuge for those seeking rest;

A haven of security;

A temple of devotion to His children.

Your home shelters those who seek Him while on the journey.

"Most of the days and all of the nights, I am alone except for these periods of spiritual refreshment with students and friends of the Way of God.

"To enter the consciousness where God lives one's life is to meet others who have received the Grace of realizing the Christ life - and this communion is a joyous as well as a holy experience. We are all invited to this feast and the price is merely giving up concern for one's own welfare. This ability also comes by Grace, but the preparation for receiving Grace is our responsibility.

"Our periods of study, meditation - reading and hearing the Word; - our devotion to the principle of "thy Grace is my sufficiency," our seeking God for God-experience -herein is our preparation for Grace.

"The Master tells us of the fertile soil - barren soil - the rocky soil - and so we know that the seed, the Word - can only become fruit as we prepare soil.

"The windows in our homes are of no value in or of themselves but only as instruments through which light and air can come. We are God's windows through which His Light and atmosphere of wholeness can penetrate to human consciousness and dispel it.

"Our periods of meditation (when no thought of self enters) - enables us to be windows through which God enters the human scene and transmutes it into Heaven on Earth. Here remember: we are nothing of ourselves. Do not speak, or write or teach - until His voice utters or His pen writes. There is no power - no truth - in what you or I have to give - but only in That which flows through us. And, when nothing comes, be still.

"Since I have no wings on my shoulders, am happy that the wings on my heels permit me to carry this message to you. Am flying Sunday for two weeks on the mainland where I will be able to greet a few of our students in Portland, Seattle and Chicago - and through them another message will come to you tape recorded.

"Well, in closing let me remind you: If you are still seeking anything on the outer plane to bring you peace, joy, security or freedom - forget it now. The infinite invisible is your Rock - your meat, wine and water - your fortress and your hightower.

Aloha, Joel "
