At one time, The Infinite Way had study centers around the world. Here are the principles they followed. This was posted attractively in each center.

The Infinite Way Study Center

Ten Principles for the Center:

1. Each student participating in the activity must meditate and get the inner meaning of the passage that Mr. Goldsmith uses in his writings, "Illumination dissolves," and also the Bible passage that is used in the writings: "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." (Psalm 127).
2. Do not depend on "Man, whose breath is in his nostrils" for activity or supply. Always acknowledge, "Thy grace is our sufficiency."
3. Enter the portals of the Center with clean hands. Remember to honor it as a spiritual sanctuary. Prepare with a few minutes of peace and silence before beginning the activity of the day.
4. Do not get discouraged or exuberant at outer show. Work with quiet, secret knowledge of the Presence behind all appearances.
5. Our motto: In quietness and confidence is our strength."
6. Each of us is going to grow through this practical experience of sharing, giving, and living in unity and harmony.
7. Do specific work each day for the Center and The Infinite Way in general.
8. We must express Love, Joy, Sharing, Peace. Set examples by not judging and criticizing others.
9. The first fruits of the Center activity will be turned over to Mr. Goldsmith as our Teacher and Guide.
10. The Center will secretly and anonymously make a contribution each month to some worthy cause.

God Consciousness:

INFINITY IS THE MEASURE

HARMONY IS THE STATE

INFINITE ABUNDANCE IS THE EXPRESSION
